The incident was occurred in a room that only dim and faint elements. Sob and scream of a woman and her son were echoing. I thought he cracked plaster walls. I often see the cards were going away outside. The woman embraced her son, the boy clung to her arm. Four eyes again stared at me. Udderly lost of soul, pleaded for their lives. And desire for them. Not logically, but real lives there. My right palm had been grasping a iron weapon which can reap souls. The woman called me mercy with quivering lips. How ever my instinct whispered. How horrible overture. Whole my skin got wet with sweat, clotted the stuck terribly. This stay got hard rap idly and my organs were quivered. What that the soprano of my life. The hand and gun grasped in my hand shivered, the grip of the handgun cracked. A rationality

Wearing shirts thrown onto the sofa, outworn chin and raggedly jacket used by American in WW2, then set about breaking fast. Today's menu is not something handsome everyday | two toasts, sunnyside up with two eggs and crispy bacon. It's not much more than undressed beam. Even the simplest work has been difficult for me these days.

Setting toast on the toaster like landmine, bombing two larvae eggs into frying pan. The omelet grabbed the egg, I feel accomplished. One of sunnysides up. Transexual. One of scrambled eggs. Changethe negative mind, crack the second egg with the corner of the egg. Today's scrambled egg will be considered a big.

The bacon baked few minutes later. I took a look at this container. I've lost half of the apples.
